Sir,

With reference to my letter No.G. 13 dated 7-7-1908, relating to the necessity for constructing Hospital Assistants quarters and recommending especially that quarters be built at Tyamagondlu, I have the honor to request that early steps in this direction be taken, as in the place mentioned there is not even an in-patient room in which the Hospital Assistant can be accommodated. His lot is a very hard one and seems to call for very early orders.
